FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:
Bank Robbery in violation of Title 18 U.S.C. § 2113 (a) as charged in Counts 1 and 2 of the Indictment.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant, RUBEN TORRES, guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby placed on PROBATION on Counts 1 and 2 of the 3-Count Indictment for a term of: three (3) years.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due within 60 days from the entry of judgment.

Pursuant to Guidelines Section 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine in addition to restitution.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $3,718, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

Victims	Amount
CALIFORNIA BANK AND TRUST	$2,678
CHASE BANK	$1,040
TOTAL:	$3,718

Restitution shall be due in nominal monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross monthly income, but not less than $25, whichever is greater, during the period of probation and shall begin 30 days after the entry of judgment. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for immediate payment of the amount ordered.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid to the victims at the addresses identified in the Notice of Information for Restitution Payments, which was filed on the court's docket [Doc. # 136] on November 1, 2013 and is incorporated herein by this reference.

USA vs. RUBEN TORRESDocket No.: CR 11-120-JFW-DMG

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

The defendant is placed on PROBATION on Counts 1 and 2 of the 3-Count Indictment for a term of THREE YEARS under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office and General Order 05-02;
2. The defendant shall not commit any violation of federal, state, or local law or ordinance;
3. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed five tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer;
4. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes breath and/or sweat patch testing (but not urinalysis), as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs and alcohol, and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision;
5. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for the treatment of narcotic addiction or alcohol dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer;
6. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer;
7. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's drug or alcohol dependency to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer, but the Probation Officer may waive all or part of the costs in consideration of the defendant's financial circumstances;
8. When not employed or excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons, the defendant shall perform up to 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation Officer;
9. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
10. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant; and

USA vs. RUBEN TORRESDocket No.: CR 11-120-JFW-DMG

11. Once a year, by December 31 during the term of probation, the defendant shall write a letter to the Court providing a status report about his progress with his mental health treatment, updates about his efforts to secure employment, if any, what he has learned from his experience, and any other pertinent issues in his life.

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Modified Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug or alcohol dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the Court.

The Court recommends the transfer of defendant's supervision of probation to the State of Florida.

Bond is ordered exonerated.

The Statement of Reasons shall be provided to the United States Probation Office.

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Modified Presentence Report to the United States Sentencing Commission.

The Court informs the defendant of his right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.

STATUTORY PROVISIONS PERTAINING TO PAYMENT AND COLLECTION OF FINANCIAL SANCTIONS

USA vs. RUBEN TORRES

Docket No.: CR 11-120-JFW-DMG

The defendant shall pay interest on a fine or restitution of more than $2,500, unless the court waives interest or unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth (15th) day after the date of the judgment pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3612(f)(1). Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3612(g). Interest and penalties pertaining to restitution, however, are not applicable for offenses completed prior to April 24, 1996.

If all or any portion of a fine or restitution ordered remains unpaid after the termination of supervision, the defendant shall pay the balance as directed by the United States Attorney's Office. 18 U.S.C. §3613.

The defendant shall notify the United States Attorney within thirty (30) days of any change in the defendant's mailing address or residence until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments are paid in full. 18 U.S.C. §3612(b)(1)(F).

The defendant shall notify the Court through the Probation Office, and notify the United States Attorney of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay a fine or restitution, as required by 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). The Court may also accept such notification from the government or the victim, and may, on its own motion or that of a party or the victim, adjust the manner of payment of a fine or restitution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). See also 18 U.S.C. §3572(d)(3) and for probation 18 U.S.C. §3563(a)(7).

Payments shall be applied in the following order:

1. Special assessments pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3013;
2. Restitution, in this sequence:
  - Private victims (individual and corporate),
  - Providers of compensation to private victims,
  - The United States as victim;
3. Fine;
4. Community restitution, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3663(c); and
5. Other penalties and costs.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS FOR PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall provide to the Probation Officer: (1) a signed release authorizing credit report inquiries; (2) federal and state income tax returns or a signed release authorizing their disclosure; and (3) an accurate financial statement, with supporting documentation as to all assets, income and expenses of the defendant. In addition, the defendant shall not apply for any loan or open any line of credit without prior approval of the Probation Officer.

The defendant shall maintain one personal checking account. All of defendant's income, "monetary gains," or other pecuniary proceeds shall be deposited into this account, which shall be used for payment of all personal expenses. Records of all other bank accounts, including any business accounts, shall be disclosed to the Probation Officer upon request.

The defendant shall not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any asset with a fair market value in excess of $500 without approval of the Probation Officer until all financial obligations imposed by the Court have been satisfied in full. These conditions are in addition to any other conditions imposed by this judgment.
